

Kentucky's Certification Program

Assessments

Assessments & Self Assessments for Kentucky's Certification Program are delivered following format:

- Assessment one – Written exam/environmental literacy
- Assessment two – A set of very short written essays involving a series of readings about the history and philosophy of environmental education
- Assessment three – Debate of a contemporary Kentucky environmental issue
- Assessment four – A detailed instructional unit which applicants tailor to their own individual program or situation